INTRODUCING OUR 2023 ARTISTS

Soprano TADEJA PANCE studied singing with Professor Barbara Nagode at the Ljubljana Vič Rudnik Music School between the years 2002 and 2009. Since 2008 she has been singing as a soloist with the ensemble Nova Schola Labacensis. In 2008 and 2009 she actively participated in the Days of the Lute at the Festival of Early Music at Škofja Loka, Slovenia. In the year of Primož Trubar, she participated in the first performance of Slovenian Protestant choral and secular songs of the time, as a member of the duo La Turturella with the lutenist Žiga Kroflič. She has perfected her skills with mezzosoprano Barbara Jernejčič Fürst and soprano Ileana Bratuž Kacjan. She also participated in several different musical contests and won the first place in singing at the international musical contest Cogoleto 2009 in Genova, Italy. She sang solo soprano in Mozart's Kronungsmesse, Spatzenmesse and Haydn's Mass of Saint Nicolai with great success. She also participated on both albums released by ensemble Nova Schola Labacensis Occident Meets Orient and Delitiae Musicae. Lately she has received many high critical acclaims for solo singing with the ensemble Nova Schola Labacensis in various musical genres from early European music to Oriental music.
