Po študiju violončela, komorne glasbe in muzikologije na različnih francoskih ustanovah je francoska violončelistka Lorraine Brosse pridobila diplomu National Supérieur Professionnel de Musicien, pedagoško izobrazbo in licenco iz muzikologije. Ker jo je pritegnila stara glasba, je magistrirala iz zgodovinskega violončela na Kraljevem konservatoriju v Bruslju in trenutno opravlja specializacijo iz srednjeveških gosli na Schola Cantorum Basiliensis. Navdušena je nad komorno glasbo in redno nastopa v različnih estetskih formacijah, od renesančnih skladb (npr. les Sonadori ali Vox in Rama) do sodobnega francoskega šansona. Leta 2011 je ustanovila kvartet (flavta in godala) "Les Rideaux Rouges", ki javnosti ponuja izviren pristop k klasični glasbi, ki združuje gib, poezijo, humor... V želji po povezovanju glasbe z drugimi vejami umetnosti redno sodeluje z igralci, plesalci, pesniki in skladatelji. Lorraine poučuje violončelo v Burgundiji na konservatoriju Autun.

After studying cello, chamber music and musicology at various French institutions, French cellist Lorraine Brosse obtained a National Supérieur Professionnel de Musicien diploma, a teaching qualification, and a license in musicology. Attracted to early music, she obtained a master's degree in historical cello at the Royal Conservatoire in Brussels and is currently specializing in medieval violin at the Schola Cantorum Basiliensis. She is passionate about chamber music and regularly performs in various aesthetic formations, from Renaissance compositions (e.g. Les Sonadori or Vox in Rama) to contemporary French chanson. In 2011, she founded the quartet (flute and strings) "Les Rideaux Rouges", which offers the public an original approach to classical music that combines movement, poetry, humour... In the desire to connect music with other branches of art, she regularly collaborates with actors, dancers, poets and collaborates with contemporary composers. Lorraine teaches cello in Burgundy at the Autun Conservatory.
