

GREGOR FELE

Pod častnim pokroviteljstvom
Under the honorary patronage

Photo: Jana Jocif

22.8.2024

Celje
Narodni dom

Gregor Fele je študiral violončelo na Akademiji za glasbo v Ljubljani pri Milošu Mlejniku in nadaljeval študij na Univerzi Mozarteum Salzburg pri Enricu Bronziju ter baročni violončelo pri Marcu Testoriju. Kot solist je nastopal s številnimi orkestri in kot komorni glasbenik na neštetih mednarodnih festivalih. Redno snema za RTV Slovenija. Sodeloval je z znanimi izvajalci baročne glasbe, kot so Reinhard Goebel, Dorothee Oberlinger, Marco Testori, Midori Seiler, Lorenzo Ghielmi, Hiro Kurosaki, Stefan Temmingh, Anne Freitag in Oliver Weber. Redno igra z violinistko Boženo Angelovo in gambistom Domnom Marinčičem. Od leta 2006 je član Simfoničnega orkestra RTV Slovenija, ki ga je vodil na številnih koncertih baročne glasbe.

Gregor Fele studied violoncello at the Academy of Music in Ljubljana with Miloš Mlejnik and continued his studies at the University Mozarteum Salzburg with Enrico Bronzi and baroque cello with Marco Testori. As a soloist he performed with many orchestras and as a chamber musician at countless international festivals. He regularly records for the RTV Slovenia. He has worked with well-known performers of baroque music such as Reinhard Goebel, Dorothee Oberlinger, Marco Testori, Midori Seiler, Lorenzo Ghielmi, Hiro Kurosaki, Stefan Temmingh, Anne Freitag and Oliver Weber. Regularly he plays with violinist Božena Angelova and gambist Domen Marinčič. Since 2006 he has been a member of the RTV Slovenia Symphony Orchestra, which he directed in many baroque music concerts.

